Dear Parent/Carer

As part of your son/daughter's English Literature GCSE course, he/she will be studying "The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time. This National Theatre's acclaimed West End production is touring the country in 2017 and we have booked a limited number of tickets for a matinee performance at Leeds Grand Theatre on Thursday 2 March 2017. Seeing this fantastic performance will be a stimulating and exciting experience. Not only will the live performance be enriching, it will also mean that students are much better equipped to write about the play, which is a compulsory part of their GCSE course.

We will be attending the matinee performance, leaving the College's Normanby site at noon, and returning from there at approximately 6.30pm. Students will be required to make their own way home. As the students will be leaving the College before the start of lunch, they may have the opportunity of having a refreshment break at the A64 services near Tadcaster. Alternatively, they can take a packed lunch to eat on the coach. There may be occasions when your son/daughter will be out of the direct sight of a member of College staff. They will, however, have access to staff at designated meeting points and be equipped with staff mobile phone numbers in case of emergencies. This is classed as remote supervision. Students should wear their College uniform and bring a coat.

The cost of the ticket and transportation is £25 per student. Please complete and return this reply slip and a £5 deposit as soon as possible in order to secure a place. The balance will be required to be paid in full by the end of January next year. Please contact me at the College if you have any concerns or further questions.

Yours sincerely
