16 November 2016

Dear Student

I would like to invite you to a play created by the Stephen Joseph Theatre's 'Outreach Team'. The play is called 'Grubstaker' and is a dark comedy created in response to a commission from the Illegal Money Lending Team. It reveals the ease with which people can become victim to loan sharks and how quickly their lives can spiral out of control. An estimated 310,000 households across the country are in debt to a loan shark. The England Illegal Money Lending Team has so far prosecuted more than 320 loan sharks across the country.

The piece is highly creative and will be performed by a young cast. The play will be on Wednesday 23 November 2016, starting at 11.30am in the College's Scoresby site Gym. It will last for approximately 1 hour and you can stay and have a chat with members of the cast and crew after the show.

Please note that Year 10 Drama students should arrive at their lesson as normal and will be escorted over to the Scoresby site. Sixth form students should make their way to the Scoresby site straight after break, or may join the Year 10 student's class to walk over together. Ms Wright will accompany you back to the Normanby site after the performance and in time for lunch.

The performance is free of charge.

Year 10 and 12 Drama students will use this production to produce a review as part of their Drama course.

Yours sincerely
