30 April 2018

Dear Students, Parents and Carers

Firstly, I wish to apologise to you for the delay in announcing the name of our new Principal. This was due to the need to carry out all the required information and checks, which have now been completed. I am, therefore, delighted to be able to tell you that the new Principal of Caedmon College is called Simon Riley.

Simon is currently Acting Head of Brigshaw High School in Allerton Bywater, West Yorkshire, where he has worked for many years and he will take up his post at Caedmon College from September 2018.

We are delighted to have been able to make such a strong appointment and Simon is looking forward to taking forward the excellent work carried out by Keith Prytherch and Vicki Rahn.

Simon is very keen to meet staff and students and is coming into College this week. We are expecting that he will spend some time here this term, getting to know everyone and starting to learn about life at Caedmon.

Yours sincerely
